

ALLAH

O Sun, Moon and stars,
O tress, bees and flowers,
Answer the question that baffles me,
Solve the riddle that troubles me,
Who controls you? Who governs you?
Oh tell me! Oh tell me! Who rules you?

Listen O Atheist! Come sit beside me,
A little flower will solve
the riddle that puzzles thee,
The Sun, the Moon and the stars,
The winds and the thunder storms,
All are controlled by the powerful One,
The Almighty, the Magnificent,
the Merciful One.

COLORS OF FAITH

Colors of hope, colors of joy,
Colors of faith in the sky!
Beauty that spreads all around me,
Colorful flowers blooming beside me!

MY LORD

O my Lord! O my Love!
O you Creator who is above!
Thanks for thy blessings
showered upon me,

And for the bounties which thee gave me,
I am nothing without thy Grace!
The world for me
is then a desperate place!
